INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

December 20, 2018

The Executive and Members of Thinking Rock Community Projects Inc.

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Thinking Rock Community Projects Inc., which comprise the statement of financial position as at September 30, 2018, the statement of operations and changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. We conducted the audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Thinking Rock Community Projects Inc. as at September 30, 2018 and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

THINKING ROCK COMMUNITY PROJECTS INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

Thinking Rock Community Projects Inc. is incorporated under the laws of Ontario as a non-profit corporation without share capital. As such, it is exempt from income taxes under section 149 (1) of the Income Tax Act. The financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations (ASFNPO).

The mandate of Thinking Rock Community Projects Inc. is to provide services and administer projects to support the arts.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

- a) Revenue recognition: Thinking Rock Community Projects Inc. follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount can be reasonably estimated and collections is reasonably assured. Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Services and consulting fees are recognized when the service has been performed.
- b) Contributed goods and services: The organization has elected to recognize contributed goods and services at fair market value. The contributed goods and services would need to be purchased as they are within the normal course of operations, fair market value is being determined on this basis.
- c) Capital assets: Assets purchased are expensed in the year they are acquired. During the year there were no purchases of capital assets. There were no purchases of capital assets in 2017.
- d) Financial instruments: Financial assets or liabilities obtained in arm's length transactions are initially measured at their fair value and financial assets or liabilities obtained in related party transactions are measured at their exchange amount. The organization subsequently measures all of its financial assets and liabilities at amortized cost.

2. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The organization's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivable, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities. Unless otherwise noted, it is managements opinion that the organization is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risk arising from these financial instruments. The fair value of these financial instruments approximate their carrying values, unless otherwise noted.

3. ECONOMIC DEPENDENCE

The organization is primarily funded by provincial and federal grants which provides a significant portion of revenue used for operations. In 2018, 71% (2017-69%) of total revenues were from government funding.

4. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The organization considers its capital to be its unrestricted net assets which consist of amounts for future operations. The organization's objectives when managing its capital assets are to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern so it can continue to fulfil it's mandate. An annual budget is developed and monitored to ensure the organization's capital is maintained to meet these objectives.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

5. JUMBLIES LOAN PAYABLE

The loan has no interest or terms associated with it and must be used within the charitable mandates of the organization. The total balance of the loan was repaid in full during the fiscal year.

6. COMMITMENTS

The organization renewed the lease on the same premises for a term of 6 months commencing May 1, 2018. Monthly rent is required in the amount of $400 plus HST. The organization is also responsible for its proportionate share of additional rent including insurance, taxes maintenance and operating costs of the premises.

7. CONTRIBUTED GOODS AND SERVICES

During the year, Thinking Rock Community Projects Inc. received the following goods and services which if not donated would have been purchased. Food for events amounting to $300, event services staff member amounting to $6,800, production goods and services amounting to $150 and travel and accommodation amounting to $9,250. These services are recorded as revenues and expenses in the Statement of Operations.

8. FINANCIAL RISKS

(a) Credit risk:

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty may default on its contractual obligations resulting in a financial loss. The organization deals with creditworthy counterparties to mitigate the risk of financial loss from defaults. The organization performs continuous evaluation of its accounts receivable and records an allowance for impairment. No individual account is significant to the organization.

(b) Liquidity risk:

Liquidity risk is the risk that the organization will be unable to fulfill its obligations on a timely basis or at a reasonable cost. The organization manages its liquidity risk by monitoring its operating requirements. The organization prepares budget and cash forecasts to ensure it has sufficient funds to fulfill its obligations. There has been no change to the risk exposures from 2017.

Concentration of risk:

(a) Industry:

The organization operates as an art association and is affected by general economic trends. The organization relies primarily on funding. It's ability to continue as a going concern depends on it's ongoing ability to obtain funding through private and government sources.
